

The University of Georgia

Department of Communication Sciences & Special Education

The Department of Communication Sciences and Special Education invites applications for an Assistant/Associate Professor tenure track position in the area of Early Childhood Special Education (ECSE).

Qualifications: Candidates should have an earned doctorate in Special Education or closely related field, expertise in early childhood special education with experience in Part C early intervention and/or public school preschool – primary grade. The successful candidate should have a proven track record in scholarly productivity and demonstrated potential for obtaining external funding. Expertise in early communication and language development is desirable.

Responsibilities: The duties of the position are to maintain a program of research, submit and direct grants, teach ECSE courses at the undergraduate and graduate level, supervise and advise students, and participate in program development.

Application Process: Applicants should submit a letter of application, curriculum vitae, three samples of scholarly writing, contact information for three people from whom letters of reference may be requested, and official transcripts to:

Cynthia Vail, Ph.D.
Search Committee Chair
Department of Communication Sciences and Special Education
516 Aderhold Hall
Athens, GA 30602

Review of Candidates for the position will begin September 30, 2010, and will continue until the position is filled. The starting date for this position may be as early as January 5, 2011. This position is contingent on funding.

The University of Georgia is an equal opportunity/affirmative action/ADA institution.

For information about UGA, visit www.uga.edu.